HILO, Hawaii, October 10 .- It was a happy bunch of boys that rolled into Hilo on Tuesday afternoon with young George Beckley at the wheel of his own machine. Frank Baldwin had been dropped before they got here, but Wilthe pain can always be relieved, and lie Roth and Bob Shingle were all

They had been all round the Island of Hawaii, with a run into Puna as far, Roth called it, and no complaint about roads except in Hamakua and the other TRY ALEXANDER YOUNG HOTEL side of Waimea. The best run in the Territory for tourists, they all proclaimed, and such varieties of scenery, something new at every turn of the road. The machine was stopped at each town and habitation to be watered, and it was in just as good condition when Just the thing to wear under the new work, as when it left on the previous Wednesday. Strange stories were telephoned ahead of the machine and its party, from different parts of the island. One was of a member of the party, called Bob, who used to take a lady out for a moon-light night ride at every stopping point, without telling his partners. Another was that he tried to make people be-lieve he was Governor Frear, who will taken to your complete satisfaction. be here tomorrow, but that did not Only good work done here.

The worst of all though was the way this same Bob treated the Japanese. Bob is said to be running for an office down in Honolulu and never to have made a political speech. So he tried his powers of oratory and tested his lungs on every gang of Japanese faborers that he met. The machine was always stopped and Bob jumped on the seat of the auto, working off something like this, as nearly as it could be made out over the phone:

"Esteemed voters and fellow citizens. It is with regret that you have nominated me for Governor by Commission and I despise the honor that prompted such sentiments. You may call upon me, gentlemen, for anything you want (Banzai, Sake) in the halls of justice or of our ancestors. Again I say, I'll do you

By this time the Japanese were making for the cane fields and, toward the end of the trip, they fled at the approach of the hig white auto should be pure SODA AND proach of the big white auto, shouting 'Haole he pupule, man big head, no
